BCD  CITY

70 YEARS OF BUILDING THE NATION

BCD Group is one of India's largest and oldest privately held construction conglomerates. Founded in 1952, this fourth-generation company has built a legacy over 70 years, operating across seven countries. BCD Group has delivered over 150 million square feet across diverse sectors, including townships, senior living, commercial spaces, government infrastructure, and industrial plants. Known for overcoming complex construction challenges in high-impact sectors, BCD Group is driven by a commitment to sustainable development and innovative solutions, supported by India's largest labor force. The group maintains a zero-debt status in its construction vertical, underscoring its financial strength and operational resilience.

Recognized with the prestigious Grohe-Hurun India Industry Achievement Award for constructing over 150 million square feet since inception, BCD Group continues to set benchmarks in quality and reliability. Current projects include BCD Jasmine in Shettigere and the integrated townships BCD City and Sky 9 in Hoskote, reinforcing its commitment to integrated township development.
